

【Program】

Part One 100 Years of the Institute for the Study of Japanese Folk Culture and Shibusawa Keizo (13:30—14:40)

Explanation of Purpose MARUYAMA Yasuaki (ISJFC)

Remarks on the Occasion of the Centennial

SHIUBUSAWA Masahide (Former President, Shibusawa Eiichi Memorial Foundation)

Keynote Address

The Birth of the Concept of JOMIN (Common People) Culture and the Formation of the “Knowledge Hub” of the Attic School: From the perspective of anthropological historiography

CHUN Kyung Soo (Dean, Foreign Languages School, Duy Tan University/Visiting Researcher, ISJFC)

Part Two Getting to know SHIBUSAWA Keizo, the Person (14:50—16:50)

NAGAI Miho (Shibusawa Memorial Museum)

渋沢敬三と祖父栄一 —生い立ちからみえてくるもの—

Shibusawa Keizo and His Grandfather Eiichi: What can be gleaned from his personal history

MARUYAMA Yasuaki (ISJFC)

ヨーロッパと南島の経験 —他者へのまなざしと自己への内省—

Experience in Europe and the Southern Islands: Image Towards Others and Introspection of the Self

TSUJIMOTO Yuki (School of Graduate Studies, The Open University of Japan)

渋沢敬三と銀行調査部 —民間企業における「調査」の系譜—

Shibusawa Keizo and the Bank Research Department: The line of “investigative research” in private enterprise

SATO Kenji (The University of Tokyo)

渋沢敬三における「学問」と「実業」

“Academia” and “Enterprise” for Shibusawa Keizo

Part Three What Have We Inherited from Shibusawa Keizo; How Do We Pass It On? (17:00—18:30)

Discussion

Comment YASUMURO Satoru (ISJFC)

SHIITADA Atsushi (ISJFC)

※Content may be subject to change.